

THEATRE AND DRAMA WORKSHOP

20.7.12

A workshop on theatre and drama was organized in DAV East of Loni Road by Hindustan Times Pace on 20th July' 12. The workshop was conducted by Mr Rice, the resource person from HT. This 45 minutes workshop was conducted for the students of classes IX and XI. Tips were given to students on how to enact and also emphasis was laid on expressions, pronunciation, diction, body language, building and boosting confidence level in the students so as to remove stage fear from their minds. Students were divided in groups and were provided with situations and simulations to act. Students were made to enact popular movie scenes like the famous “gabbar basanti scene” from the movie ‘sholay.’

Students were taught the appropriate and skillful usage of props when there is lack of resources while acting out skits.

The objective of the workshop was to discover the hidden talents of the students, to remove stage fear from their minds and to develop creative, independent thinking in them.

